From the Pro Shop

It is hard to believe that it is November and Christmas is right around the corner. I am almost certain that you will see some great videos from the Pro Shop staff promoting Holiday sales. We have many selections in the Pro Shop and the Christmas wrap paper is out. With Covid-19, holiday shopping may be a little different for all of us. Your Pro Shop staff is here and very knowledgeable about the products we have in the Shop. There is something about touching the fabrics and seeing them in person. Golf is up, and golf product sales are up, as well, throughout the country and we thank you for your support of your Pro Shop. We, as golf professionals, love seeing this trend and we appreciate all members coming out to the Club and using the golf course. We have already surpassed last year's rounds and we have a couple more months of cold weather golf to go. Limited as the good days are, we are here, and we look forward to you and your guest coming out to play. With late season golf we reduce the guest rate to $30 till spring. A great value to bring a friend or clients out on a nice day to play golf.

Night Golf was a great time. The temps were cold but the golf was great. We had 3 teams tie for 1st at 3 over par. Congrats to those teams. Our next upcoming event is the Chili Open. Listed below is the information for the Chili Open. Congratulations goes out to the Red Team who was able to win the Emery Cup this year. You will see a weekly email coming out from the Pro Shop and we will highlight a QU Hawk golfer each week. Our partnership with QU allows our members to use the QU workout facility. In the month of November we will be giving you a virtual tour of how to get signed up and some of the important things you will need to know. We are still in some strange times so we might as well utilize the time to get ourselves in amazing golf shape. I am going to practice what I preach on this.

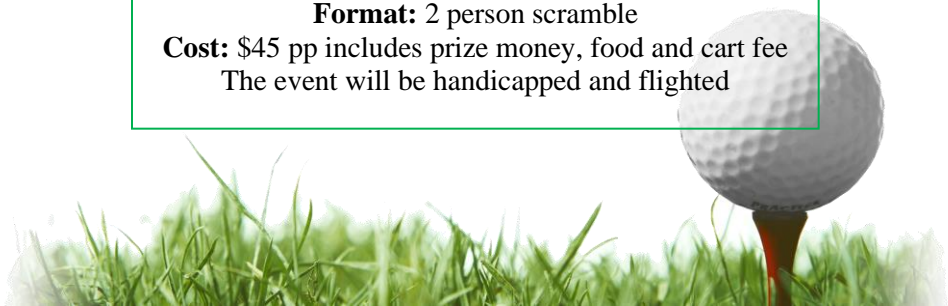

Are you a member of an organization that may want a few golf professionals to come in and talk about golf? I was able to do this last year and it was a lot of fun. You give us the topic to talk about with your group and we run with it. What better way to promote Quincy Country Club and golf? Maybe we can even attract a few new members to the Club for the 2021 season that might be thinking about joining.

The Pro Shop Christmas Sale is being held on December 3rd from 3-7 PM. Come join us for some Holiday shopping, beverages, and snacks.

Thank you again for your support of your Club and playing more golf. It is a great form of exercise and spending time with friends and family.
